Witch Kalis:
Your comrades must have firm resolve and unfailing loyalty. In these days of the endless pursuit of profit, these are rare and noble qualities.
Now, do you trust your clan members? Would you bet your life on them? If so, then drink this poison and ask your clan members to gather the ingredients and bring back the Antidote! Here is a list of the ingredients needed for the Antidote. If your comrades can find and bring back all of the ingredients within one hour your life will be saved.
I wonder how hard your clan will try to save your life? Do you care to find out?
