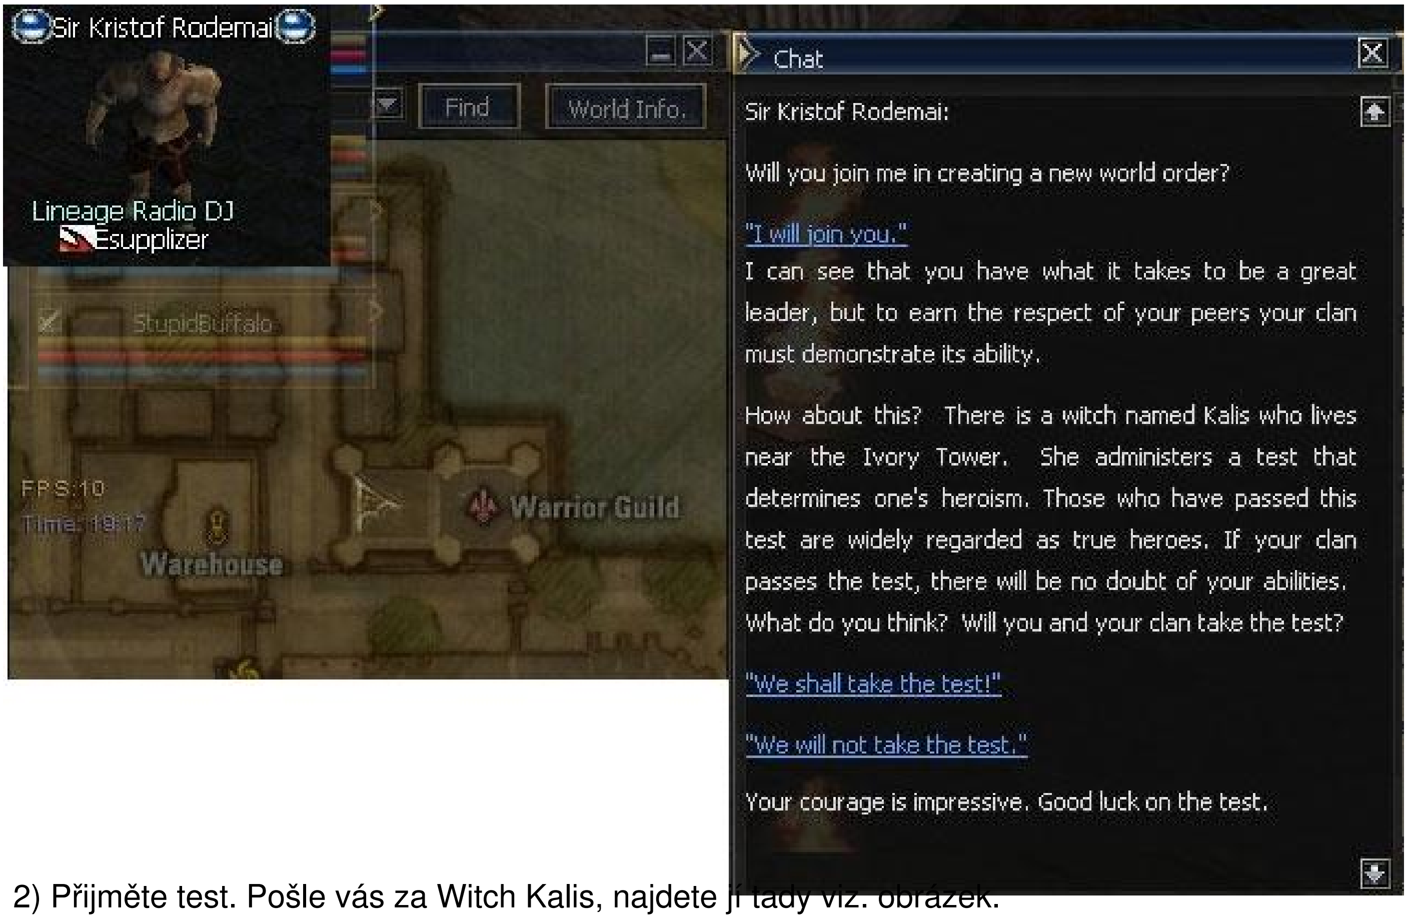
1) Promluvte se Sir Kristof Rodemai v Giranu.

Najdete ho v Warrior Guild u dveří.



Sir Kristof Rodemai:

Will you join me in creating a new world order?

"I will join you."

I can see that you have what it takes to be a great leader, but to earn the respect of your peers your clan must demonstrate its ability.

How about this? There is a witch named Kalis who lives near the Ivory Tower. She administers a test that determines one's heroism. Those who have passed this test are widely regarded as true heroes. If your clan passes the test, there will be no doubt of your abilities. What do you think? Will you and your clan take the test?

"We shall take the test!"

"We will not take the test."

Your courage is impressive. Good luck on the test.

2) Přijměte test. Pošle vás za Witch Kalis, najdete jí tady viz. obrázek.

Witch Kalis:

Ah, we shall see... Tell those who would lay down their lives for you to join me at the table of sacrifice! If they are truly loyal they will not hesitate to sacrifice their lives.

Bring me three symbols of loyalty, I will recognize the resolve of you and your clan!

Witch Kalis:

Would you choose to be a star shining brightly in the midst of chaos?

Behold the graves of those who have fallen attempting to do this...

Are you prepared to rest alongside them?

"I want to be a star."

You fool! Do you think that you are immortal? The test begins! Are there any among your clan who would die for you?

"There is one who will."

"There are none who will."

Witch Kalis:

Your comrades must have firm resolve and unfailing loyalty. In these days of the endless pursuit of profit, these are rare and noble qualities.

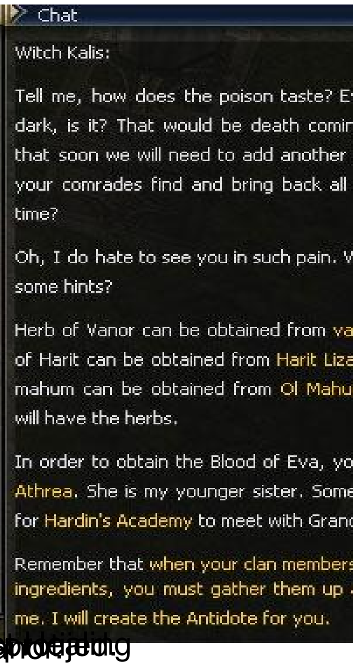
Now, do you trust your clan members? Would you bet your life on them? If so, then drink this poison and ask your clan members to gather the ingredients and bring back the Antidote! Here is a list of the ingredients needed for the Antidote. If your comrades can find and bring back all of the ingredients within one hour your life will be saved.

I wonder how hard your clan will try to save your life? Do you care to find out?

Drink the poison

Do not drink the poison

You have earned Antidote Recipe List.
The effects of Poison of Death flow through you.



Witch Kalis:

Tell me, how does the poison taste? E

Witch Athrea:

I cannot give the Blood of Eva to just anyone who asks for it! My older sister Kalis would be furious!

If you wish to obtain the Blood of Eva, you must pass the test I will give you.

"I will take the test."

You seem quick-witted enough. I will explain the test to you.

It's very simple. I trust you have drawn lots before? Think of this as drawing boxes.

First I will summon 16 boxes. Among them, four boxes are enchanted and shout when they are broken. You must find all the enchanted boxes and break them so that they will shout four times. It is possible to break all the boxes, but there is a time limit. If you cannot break the boxes within the given time, they will all disappear.

Shall we start the game?

"Start the game."

Each one of the four enchanted boxes will say "Bingo!" when broken. Funny, huh?

Why are you making a face?

Oh well, keep it in mind. Let's begin!

10) Objeví se 16 truhel a vy musíte do 1 minuty najít 4 truhly, které řeknou-bingo(musíte je rozbíjet)

Athrea s vámi bude hrát hru.

11) Pokud splníte hru úspěšně dá vám Blood of Eva.

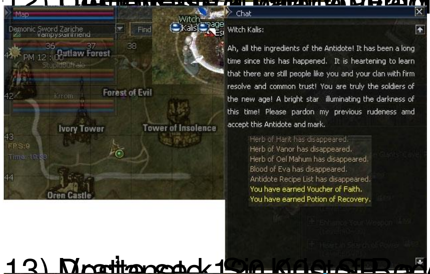
Witch Athrea:

Ah, a quite unexpected success! Well, true to my word, here is the Blood of Eva. Be careful not to break the bottle.

You have earned Blood of Eva.

12) [illegible] 3 Herb a Blood of Eva.

[illegible] a Potion of Recovery.



Witch Kalis:

Ah, all the ingredients of the Antidote! It has been a long time since this has happened. It is heartening to learn that there are still people like you and your clan with firm resolve and common trust! You are truly the soldiers of the new age! A bright star illuminating the darkness of this time! Please pardon my previous rudeness amd accept this Antidote and mark.
