Gatekeeper Mirabel:

Whew ... again ...? Every year around this time there is always someone who falls for my sister ... but why do they all ask me? It has nothing to do with me. From what I know, my sister has no interest in love or courtship. And especially not for someone like Arujien.

That's all I can tell you. But I may be wrong. I'm not that close to my sister. Perhaps Uncle Herbiel would know what my sister is thinking right now. He's always taken care of Greenis like his own daughter.

Trader Herbiel:

My niece Greenis? Yes, I treasure her like my own child. I looked after her after my brother, her father, passed away. She is a full grown adult now, but still has the innocence of a young girl.

... Ah, you mean Arujien? A fine lad he is. Greenis also thinks highly of him ... But my friend Arujien is too cautious for his own good. Go at once and tell him that Greenis also has feelings for him ...

A book from Arujien ...? Thank you.

I will write a letter to Arujien. I will say, "Thank you for your kindness, but my heart has been given to another..."
